

CME Choral Conducting Course UK 2021

The CME Institute Course is a professional development opportunity for choir conductors, Music teachers, singing leaders and those aspiring to develop their leadership in this field. It offers a highly differentiated experience, emphasising the quality of joyful, socially engaged practice for the 21st Century. Members of the UK and Ireland faculty include Naveen Arles, Alison Baxter, Pam Hulme, Steve Lodder, Bryan Welton, Mary Amond O'Brien and Jane Wheeler. This year at our residential intensive weekend in Cambridge we celebrate 'A SPACE FOR CHANGE' and our 10TH ANNIVERSARY. We are delighted to be studying and learning with:

Prof. David L. Brunner USA

Mandy Miller UK

Dr. Brandon Williams USA

Course Includes

- Comprehensive Music and Study pack
- Conducting and Vocal Technique Classes
- Score Marking and Analysis
- Reflective Rehearsal Pedagogy
- Demonstration Choir
- Conducting Master Class option with Choir
- CME Certification at levels 1, 2, and 3 with pathways to Artist Teacher Certification.
- Light refreshments and Saturday night dinner
- Saturday night special workshop (optional, but irresistible!)

Course Dates 2021

Friday 23rd July 4.00pm – Sunday 25th July 5pm @ Storey's Field Centre, Cambridge.

Thurs 22nd July 3.00pm – 9pm and Fri 23rd July 10am – 3pm @ University of Cambridge Primary School. Artist Teachers Only

NB – Accommodation package on request

Cost £420 Standard inclusive fee Friday - Sunday.

Early bird £380 booking and paying by Tuesday 1st June

CLOSING DATE Friday 25th June

